Psychotherapy versus Coaching

Psychotherapy is a medical solution to resolving issues in your life. With the use of conversation and medications, doctors direct you to recall trauma and difficulties in your past.

In some cases this may help you overcome your past trauma and allow you to move forward.

[IMAGE]

Coaching however looks forward and it starts NOW!

Leave the past behind and move forward towards your future!

Lets Get Started

Hello, I'm Fiona and I'll be your assistant.

I am going to walk you through the process of creating your profile and finding a coach,

First lets get some paperwork out of the way.
